YOUR WARRANTY

Your Jabiru Aircraft has been manufactured at our facility in Bundaberg, Australia by a team that's passionate about the quality of our aircraft. However, if something does go amiss, you can be assured that your aircraft is covered by this Jabiru New Aircraft Warranty.

If you purchased your new Jabiru Aircraft on or after the 1st January 2024, your aircraft comes with a 3 year or 500 hour Warranty Period, whichever occurs first.

Jabiru warrants that if any part of the aircraft is found to be defective in factory materials or workmanship within the stated warranty period, it will be repaired, replaced or adjusted by a Jabiru Approved Maintainer free of charge to you.

The full terms and conditions of this warranty are provided in the following pages.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

In order to maintain a valid warranty, there are a few things that you need to do. The full terms and conditions are in the following pages, but it includes:

- Operate your aircraft in accordance with the Jabiru Pilot Operating Handbook;
- Maintain your aircraft in accordance with the Jabiru Engine Maintenance Manual and Jabiru Aircraft Technical Manual;
- Use only Jabiru factory parts in maintenance and repair;
- Do not modify your aircraft without Jabiru approval; and
- Make available maintenance, operational, EFIS and EMS data.

HOW TO MAKE A CLAIM

If you wish to make a claim, contact our customer support team and they will step you through the process.

Jabiru New Aircraft Warranty - Terms and Conditions

THE WARRANTOR ▼

This document sets out the Terms and Conditions of your Jabiru New Aircraft Warranty provided by Jabiru Aircraft Pty Ltd (ABN 17 010 910 077) "Jabiru".

APPLICABILITY ▼

The Jabiru New Aircraft Warranty applies to Jabiru Aircraft models that are sold as Factory Built aircraft from Jabiru or one of its authorised agents. The warranty is only available in the country in which the aircraft was purchased and delivered and through Jabiru or the authorised agent that sold the aircraft.

YOUR WARRANTY RIGHTS ▼

Under the Jabiru New Aircraft Warranty, Jabiru warrants (subject to these Terms and Conditions) that if any part of your aircraft is found to be defective in factory materials or workmanship within the stated warranty period, it will be repaired, replaced or adjusted by a Jabiru Approved Maintainer, free of charge.

THE WARRANTY PERIOD ▼

The Jabiru New Aircraft Warranty period commences on the date that the aircraft is first registered with the relevant regulatory body and expires 3 years later or on the aircraft recording 500 hours total flown, whichever occurs first.

MAINTAINING WARRANTY VALIDITY ▼

In order to make a valid warranty claim the claimant must be able to demonstrate that the aircraft has been operated in accordance with the Pilot Operating Handbook and the the aircraft and its components have been inspected and maintained in accordance with the instructions for continued airworthiness, including compliance with all applicable service documents issued by Jabiru.

Current, approved Jabiru manuals can be found at <https://jabiru.net.au/service/manuals/>.

In order to achieve this, the claimant must make available to Jabiru on request, the operational and maintenance records for the aircraft and the historical data downloaded from the Engine Management System (EMS) and Electronic Flight Instrument System (EFIS) from the commencement of the Warranty Period to the time of the claim.

Jabiru New Aircraft Warranty - Terms and Conditions

TRANSFER OF WARRANTY

If the title of the aircraft is transferred during the warranty coverage period, this Warranty and limitations of liability and disclaimers shall also be transferred and will be valid for the remaining coverage period, provided that Jabiru has been advised of the transfer of ownership.

CONDUCT OF WARRANTY WORK

The responsibility and cost of providing the aircraft or the aircraft component to Jabiru or a nominated Jabiru Approved Maintainer rests solely with the Claimant.

Jabiru will, in its sole discretion, determine the method of conducting the warranty work whether that be by repair, adjustment or replacement.

Any repair, adjustment or replacement will not extend the Warranty Period. All repairs and replacements will be warranted for the remaining time of the Warranty Period.

No person may commence or conduct Warranty work without the explicit permission of Jabiru.
